4. Subcontracts. These rates apply equally to subcontracts under prime contracts subject to the cost principles in FAR Part 31 and subject to the limitations in each subcontract.

Contractor: Dynamac Corporation
Fairfax, VA

5. Incorporation of this rate agreement into the applicable contracts:

a. Shall not change any indirect cost rate ceiling, monetary ceiling, contract obligation, or specific allowance or disallowance provided in the terms and conditions of the affected contracts. For those contracts and subcontracts containing indirect cost rate ceilings which are less than the rates contained in this agreement, final and billing rates shall not exceed the specified ceiling rates.

b. Is not a waiver by EPA of the Limitation of Cost Clause or authorization for the contractor to exceed the current estimated costs set forth in the contracts and subcontracts.

c. Shall not change or otherwise effect billing rates for periods other than those cited in this agreement. Rates for periods not cited in this agreement shall be those specified in the original contract unless revised by another negotiated indirect cost rate agreement or contract modification.

6. Special Remarks.

a. The indirect cost rates contained in Paragraph 3 of this agreement are billing rates which apply only to the existing contracts and subcontracts and should not be construed to be forward pricing rates. The rates should not be used as a substitute for examining and analyzing indirect cost rates contained in current contractor proposals.

b. Pursuant to FAR 42.704, the contractor should adjust its interim billings on all affected contracts to reflect these agreed-upon rates. A voucher adjusting the difference between billed indirect costs and the indirect costs resulting from the application of the negotiated indirect cost rates for the periods specified in this agreement shall be submitted to the office specified in each contract within 60 days of the effective date of this negotiated indirect cost rate agreement.

4. Subcontracts. These rates apply equally to subcontracts under prime contracts subject to the cost principles in FAR Part 31 and subject to the limitations in each subcontract.

Contractor: Dynamac Corporation
Fairfax, VA

5. Incorporation of this rate agreement into the applicable contracts:

a. Shall not change any indirect cost rate ceiling, monetary ceiling, contract obligation, or specific allowance or disallowance provided in the terms and conditions of the affected contracts. For those contracts and subcontracts containing indirect cost rate ceilings which are less than the rates contained in this agreement, final and billing rates shall not exceed the specified ceiling rates.

b. Is not a waiver by EPA of the Limitation of Cost Clause or authorization for the contractor to exceed the current estimated costs set forth in the contracts and subcontracts.

c. Shall not change or otherwise effect billing rates for periods other than those cited in this agreement. Rates for periods not cited in this agreement shall be those specified in the original contract unless revised by another negotiated indirect cost rate agreement or contract modification.

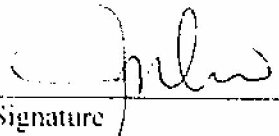

6. Special Remarks.

a. The indirect cost rates contained in Paragraph 3 of this agreement are billing rates which apply only to the existing contracts and subcontracts and should not be construed to be forward pricing rates. The rates should not be used as a substitute for examining and analyzing indirect cost rates contained in current contractor proposals.
